INSURGENT BLOC MAKES DEAL TO BACK TAX BILL

Support Administration
For Retention of the Estate Tax

SENATOR COUZENS ENGINEERS PACT

His Arch-Enemy, Mellon,
To Get 50-50 Break By Argeement Terms

Washington, May 10.—The insurgent bloc of the senate has entered a "gentleman's agreement" to support every provision of the administration's $203,000,000 tax reduction bill, in return for a pledge that the federal estate tax will be retained. International News Service learned today.

The agreement will enable the administration to secure senate approval of its own bill, while defeating the Democratic substitute plan for a $336,000,000 slash in taxes.

The agreement was entered only after the Democrats refused to make a similar alliance with the insurgents, according to a spokesman for the bloc. The insurgents, it was added, even offered to support the Democrats on an amendment, revising tariff rates, but the proposal was rejected.

Couzens Negotiates Alliance
The administration-insurgent alliance was negotiated by Senator James Couzens (R., of Michigan), it was said. By this action, Couzens was responsible for insuring senate approval of a bill keeping tax reduction within the $212,000,000 limit fixed by his arch-enemy, Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, while at the same time, insuring defeat of Mellon's pet proposal for repeal of the estate tax. It was a fifty-fifty break.

The alliance was necessary to insure adoption of the administration plan as the senate now lines up with 47 Republicans, 46 Democrats, and one Farmer-Laborite. The insurgents swing from ten to fourteen votes at all times.

We tried first to get an alliance with the Democrats," this spokesman told International News Service. "We offered to support them in an amendment proposing new tariff schedules, including increases on farm products and reductions on some of the most offensive of the high industrial rates. We offered to go along on all their tax rates, if they'd guarantee to stand with us for retention of the federal estate tax. We consider this tax a greater issue and far more important to the plain people than any other tax question now before congress. They

25 BORN, 20 DIE HERE IN APRIL

Dr. Church Makes Report To Board of Health Wednesday Night

A total of 25 births and 20 deaths were recorded during April. Dr. T. Church, city health commissioner reported at the board of health meeting Wednesday night.

Of the births, 17 were boys and eight girls. The fourth ward led with 14; the first and second wards each had four and the third, three. Eighteen of the total were local, seven from out of town. All were white.

Only one death occurred in the third ward during the month; the fourth ward recorded nine; the first, six; and the second, four.

Two deaths occurred under one month old, one between one and two months, one between the ages of 20 and 30; four between 40 and 50; four between 50 and 60; three between 60 and 70; four between 70 and 80; and one between 80 and 90. Thirteen were local; seven from out of town.

During the month there were 22 cases of scarlet fever; seven of mumps; chickenpox, four; whooping cough, 19; German measles, two and syphilis, one.

Dr. Church's detailed report read: Permits 21; releases nine; reports of diseases 31; conferences, eight; working certificates, four; telephone conferences, eight; conferences with doctors, five; sampling water, one; investigation visit, three; nuisances two; pupil examinations, five; report of breaking quarantine, one.

12 Men Drifting To Sea As Ice Breaks

St. Johns, N. F., May 10.—Twelve men were reported drifting to sea on ice pans which broke away from the shore in the Cape St. John vicinity today.

The men were members of a party of 16 which was hunting seals. Four reached safety, the report said. The steamship Kyle is being rushed to make a search.

SILVER BUYS PART OF VICTOR PLANT

A. O. Silver who purchased about a year ago the line of "Ohio" feed and ensilage cutters, from the receiver of the Silver Manufacturing company, and has been operating in part of the Silver plant, now owned by the Mullins Manufacturing corporation, has just purchased of the Victor Stove company, 60 feet of ground fronting on Depot st., extending down Mill st. to the Pennsylvania company's right-of-way, and including the Victor brick office building, the three-story brick factory building 52x135 feet, the nickel plate shop and other miscellaneous buildings.

Mr. Silver's business has been increasing since he began operating individually, to such an extent that he requires more room, and he will take possession and move into the new quarters about June 15.

The Victor Stove company retains their buildings on the south side of their plant for storage and production and will move their sales rooms and offices up-town.

City Hospital Open Saturday For Inspection Of Visitors

Although hospitals have been in existence for hundreds of years, and some form of health service is on record among the most ancient of peoples, it is rather strange that up to six years ago no concentrated effort was made to tell the public of the real importance of the work of hospitals.

Some interesting facts concerning this educational movement which is known as National Hospital day, and which is observed throughout the United States and Canada and in other countries on Saturday were given today by Miss Susan Emmott, superintendent of the Salem City hospital.

This institution, incidentally, has joined with thousands of others for the observance of National Hospital day and extends a cordial invitation to the people of the community to visit the institution on Saturday, when an interesting program will be arranged.

National Hospital day is conducted under the auspices of the American Hospital association which numbers thousands of hospitals and hospital executives of the United States, Canada and other countries in its membership.

Day Educational One
The day is purely an educational one, and the association officially discourages requests for donations or appeals of any kind. The whole idea is to encourage people in the community served by the hospital to learn how well the hospital is prepared to care for them in sickness or accident, and how it is

BAND TO PLAY NATIVE PIECES

Free Concert Friday To Feature Compositions
By Americans

Quaker City band, under the direction of John W. Hundertmark, has arranged an excellent program for the free concert it will present at 8 p. m. Friday at the Memorial building, in observance of National Music week.

In an effort to interest Salentines in American composers, only American compositions are being used on the program.

These numbers compose the program:
March, "The Post Adjutant," (Trotter); Overture, "The Princess of India," (Kings); medley, "Victor Herbert's Favorites," (Herbert); march, "N. C. 4," (Bigelow); serenade, "Sleepy Hollow," (Allen); trumpet solo, "Facilita," Samuel J. Miss; accompanied on the piano by Miss Evelyn Dahl; overture, "Sounds From the Sunny South," (Isenman); "American Patrol," (Meachem); "Star Spangled Banner," (Keyes).

Carol Must Go Is Final Warning Of English Officials

London, May 10.—Prince Carol has no alternative today but to make final preparations for leaving England.

All his pleas to the home office that its order of expulsion be withdrawn have failed to move the adamant body. The prince has been informed that he is expected to leave the country as "soon as possible."

This apparently vague deadline is understood to mean the end of this week. If the royal guest has not departed when that time has expired, the expulsion order will be enforced.

Just how government officials will go about the unpleasant task of packing off the Roumanian prince is causing much conjecture.

A physician visited the home of M. Jonescu in Godstone, Surrey, where the prince is staying, several times yesterday. As the house was closely guarded it was not learned whether the physician attended Carol or some one of his retinue.

TRACKS BURIED BY LANDSLIDE

Hagerstown, Md., May 10.—The Baltimore and Ohio railroad's four main line tracks were buried under thousands of tons of rocks and earth today as result of a landslide on Hansrote mountain, near Hancock.

Quick work of employees in setting safety signals prevented trains from crashing into the debris. The tracks may be tied up for three days.

Passenger traffic was routed through Big Poole and Cherry Run, but freight traffic was at a standstill.

New York, May 10.—Unfilled tonnage of the United States Steel corporation decreased 463,073 tons in April, the corporation announced today. Forward orders on April 30 amounted to 3,872,133 tons against 4,335,206 tons on March 31 of 4,398,189 tons on February 29.

According to Detective Chief Jack B. Walker, who made the arrest, the crime was committed five weeks ago, it was said.

CAMPAIGN FUND PROBERS TO QUIZ HOOVER FURTHER

ANNUAL DRIVE STARTS MAY 16 WITH DINNER

Seven Organizations and Institutions Will Be Included In Budget

READY TO OPEN CHEST CAMPAIGN

Actual Drive Will Take
2 Days; Chairman To Be Appointed

Plans for the annual Community Chest campaign May 16, 17 and 18 were announced today by the executive committee of the Salem Welfare Federation.

The goal sought is $24,200, or $500 more than last year when the city went over the top of the goal of $23,700.

Seven affiliated organizations submitted their budgets Tuesday night, and after study of these budgets, the committee today set the amount of the drive.

The apportionments in the chest goal are as follows:
Memorial building, $8,500.
Salem City Hospital association, $7,000.

Salem Chapter, Red Cross, $5,500.
Salvation Army, $1,000.

Boy Scouts, $1,000.
Home For Aged Women, $1,000.

Quaker City band, $200.

The drive will open on the evening of May 16 when the executive committee and team workers, who are to be selected soon, will meet at a dinner at the Memorial building.

Complete plans will be outlined at this dinner, and the actual drive will get under way on Thursday morning, May 17.

The campaign will end Friday evening, May 18, and the federation hopes to be over the top by that time.

The general chairman has not been selected.

RECORD CROWD GREET'S FLIERS

Arrive In Cleveland At 12:09 P. M. for Stop of
Hour at Airport

Cleveland, May 10.—The famous crew of the trans-Atlantic airship Bremen, Baron Gunther Von Huenfeld, Major C. Fitzmaurice and Captain Herman Koehl, continuing their tour of American cities, arrived at Brook park, Cleveland airport at 12:09 p. m. today from Philadelphia in the F-13 sister ship of the Bremen.

The flight was uneventful, except for the bucking of slight headwinds, it was said. Ideal flying weather prevailed and a record crowd was on hand to extend greetings.

Give Each Wrist Watch
An honor luncheon was to be tendered the "three modern musketeers," at the local airport, with nearly 100 persons, representing Irish and German clubs of this city, in attendance. Brief speeches by the famous airmen and representative Clevelanders were on the program which was to be broadcast by radio. Each of the Bremen trio was to be presented with a wrist watch, gift of German and Irish societies here.

GIRARD GARAGE IN RUINS TODAY

Girard, May 10.—The N. W. Pope company auto sales and service station was in ruins here today as a result of fire last night.

The loss is estimated at $60,000. Fire companies from Niles and Youngstown joined the local department in keeping the blaze from spreading. Fifteen autos were burned and Dr. W. B. Cunningham, former mayor was slightly hurt when struck by a fire truck.

Twice previously in Trumbull county Monsene was convicted on the bribery charge, but each time the conviction was reversed.

Wednesday's crowd was said to have been the largest in the history of Ashabula county's court room, to which Monsene was removed on a change of venue.

American Steel Heads Pleased With Salem Mill After Inspection

Conditions Found To Be Very Satisfactory By Company Officials

HERE WEDNESDAY ON REGULAR TRIP

Backus and Baldwin Greet
Old Friends Here; Were Formerly of Salem

Conditions in the Salem plant of the American Steel and Wire company were found to be excellent by more than a score of the leading officials of the company who visited the plant on their semi-annual inspection trip Wednesday afternoon.

Supt. Edward B. Whitacre and other plant officials was complimented by the officials, who were headed by President J. S. Keefe, of Cleveland, and Vice-President Frank Backus, of Chicago, formerly of this city, for the physical appearance of the plant and the condition of the equipment.

The officials seemed very well pleased as they went through the various departments after arriving here shortly after 1 p. m., in a private car over the Pennsylvania Lines.

The inspection was completed by mid-afternoon and the officials went on east to visit other plants. They came here from Cleveland, where three plants were inspected Wednesday morning.

Among the officials who made the inspection here, in addition to President Keefe and Vice-President Backus, were:

H. A. Barren, vice president; J. L. Gray, assistant to the president; C. F. Blackmer, general superintendent of wire mills; H. G. Baldwin, formerly of Salem, superintendent of the order and warehouse department; J. A. Coakley, traffic manager; S. W. Tener, manager of accidents and pension department; F. A. Allen, secretary; E. E. Stone, general purchasing agent; G. H. Peters, assistant manager of the Cleveland district; E. H. Broden, manager of the Pittsburgh district; F. Ingram, manager of the Chicago district; R. L. Foster, assistant general sales agent, New York; and Samuel Dunlap, assistant auditor.

Backus and Baldwin were warmly greeted by old friends here. They were both identified with the Salem mill years ago.

Marine Aviator Is Unhurt After Plane Falls In Nicaragua

Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, May 10.—While making an aerial survey of the Laluz mine in the Pis Pis district, Capt. E. D. Howard of the American marines, made a forced landing in his plane without injury to himself or a passenger but the plane was demolished.

The stranded aviator was sighted by Maj. Utley and Lieut. Conway in another plane. Marines in the vicinity were notified and they proceeded to the scene of the accident immediately. The rough terrain in the vicinity of the Laluz mine prevented Utley and Conway from landing and picking up Howard and his companion.

There have been no further clashes between the marines and bandits in the Pis Pis district during the last few days.

Scores of fishing craft were lost in the storm and several houses were destroyed at Ragusa, Italy.

TRADE BOARD CHIEF SAYS U. S. IS CURSED WITH 'DIRT' HYSTERIA

Washington, May 10.—America is cursed with a plague of self-seeking patriots who are completely obsessed with the delusion that the road to the White House runs through a sewer, W. E. Humphreys, chairman of the federal trade commission, told the United States Chamber of Commerce today.

Humphreys has been a center of controversy on the commission, his opponents charging he was one of the men used to "pack" the commission.

Digressing from a eulogy of the trade commission, Humphreys made a slashing attack upon "professional reformers and patriots." "This is a day of reckless accusations, of unmeasured denunciation, of muck-raking and mud-slinging," Humphreys said.

Calm Judgment Impossible
"A presidential election is approaching. This is the day when the self-anointed, the holier-than-thou, the reformer for pay, the fanatic and the crack-brained, the publicity lover and the professional patriot are crowding for the spotlight.

"If you were to listen to the clamor you might believe that politics is a vast, putrid cess-pool, and that the purity of those engaged in it is measured by the scandals that they can hold up to the public gaze.

"In such a state of public hysteria, calm and just judgment is impossible. The innocent are as

FREED HERSELF, CRAWLED TO ROAD

Los Angeles Manufacturer's Wife In Serious Condition Today

Los Angeles, May 10.—Mrs. Marie Billings, 36, is in a serious condition at a hospital today after having been beaten and buried alive in a semi-conscious condition according to her story to the sheriff's office.

She said a man came to her home and tried to sell her some real estate. Suddenly, she declared, he struck her over the head with a blunt club.

Sheriff's office investigators said it appeared that the woman's assailant had taken her in an automobile into the Puente hills, laid her in a shallow grave and covered her with loose earth, and the belief that she was dead.

Mrs. Billings' hands and feet had been bound. She said she was semi-conscious when placed in the grave, but could make no outcry.

Later she freed herself and struggled out of her makeshift grave. A taxi driver found her on a road a mile east of Whittier, seeking aid. She still wore the blanket which had been wrapped around her by her assailant.

Mrs. Billings is the wife of Howard B. Billings, head of the Billings Manufacturing company.

NOMINATION IS SEEKING SMITH; DOING NOTHING

Testifies He Has Given
No Authority to Open
Formal Campaign

New York, May 10.—Contributions to the Governor Smith-for-President campaign total $103,310 and the highest individual contributor is William F. Kenney, a Brooklyn contractor, who contributed $50,000, of which $4000 was a loan, it was testified here today before the senate committee investigating campaign expenditures.

The testimony was given by George R. Van Namee, a public service commissioner, in charge of Smith's campaign in New York state.

New York, May 10.—Gov. Alfred E. Smith testified before the senate committee investigating campaign fund expenditures today that he had authorized no one to act as chairman or treasurer of any national campaign fund in his behalf.

"He said he understood that some of his friends in New York City had started a Smith presidential boom but he personally had "done nothing about it."

The governor said that any money spent in his behalf in New York City could be explained by George R. Van Namee. Personally, the governor had taken no active interest in the finances of friends who had interested themselves in his behalf.

Has No Chairman
The governor smoked a cigar as he testified.

Senator Steiwer, Republican, of Oregon, the chairman of the committee, then questioned the governor. First he read a telegram to the committee from Governor Smith dated May 8 in which Smith said he had authorized no one to act as a national chairman or treasurer of any Smith organization.

"I know of no activities in any state beyond New York. In New York a committee of friends have interested themselves in my behalf. Mr. Van Namee can explain what expenditures

STEWART MUM ON RESIGNATION

Chicago, May 10.—Colonel Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of Standard Oil company of Indiana, arrived in Chicago today without comment on the demand of John D. Rockefeller Jr. that he resign "for the best interests of the company."

Col. Stewart left the train at a south side station without waiting for it to arrive at the main terminal. He hurried into an automobile and sped away.

The chairman of the board did remark, however, that a statement attributed to him that he would "say plenty" upon his arrival in Chicago, was false.

PUBLICITY FOR HYPOCRISY

Something of a sensation has been created in the federal capital by the editorial announcement of a Washington paper that henceforth it proposes "to publish as news the appearance on duty of any so-called dry member of the house or senate in an obviously intoxicated condition."

The Washington despatch carrying the announcement says that it is manifestly uttered that there may not be repetition of such scenes as were enacted during the closing hours of the last session of congress when one senator who is recognized as a leading champion of prohibition had to be led out of the senate chamber, while four or five others groped their way in and out of the cloakrooms in full view of the gallery crowds.

The editorial goes on to state that, while it is disgusting to behold a senator or representative, under the influence of liquor, attempting to discuss affairs of state, when such a senator or representative is one who consistently votes for prohibition, the hypocrisy displayed and the rank abuse of special privilege is simply intolerable. The paper in question doesn't intend to conduct a snooping campaign, the editorial states, nor does it propose to have its reporters "waste their time analyzing the breath of statesmen," but it gives fair notice that "when a fire-eating prohibitionist wanders aimlessly about the senate chamber during the discussion of important business and finally interrupts to ask the presiding officer, 'What's bizness before house?' or when a similar exponent of the Volstead act has to hang hard to the edge of his desk, while his legs weave unsteadily under him as he attempts to make a speech, or when a champion of the 18th amendment relapses from maudlin inattention into snoring sleep in the midst of a senate session," it will undertake to make his condition to its readers.

From its editorial, we get it that this Washington paper doesn't propose to attempt to stop drinking among statesmen, conceding that "they are as much entitled to the synthetic pleasure as anybody else," but that it does insist "that the sickening hypocrisy in high places, now too general, shall no longer be accepted as a matter of course."

We regret that we haven't the editorial at hand, but only an outline. Possibly we might be impressed otherwise, were we to read it in its entirety, but, judging from the extracts which have come to us, it doesn't ring true. It impresses us as having been written more for the purpose of administering a blow to the cause of prohibition than in the interest of temperance in our federal halls of legislation. In fact, it says as much in so many words, for its entire force is directed against hypocrisy rather than against temperance. It doesn't propose to show up drunkenness in our legislative bodies; it merely intends to show up hypocrisy made manifest by drunkenness. In a word, it makes hypocrisy on the part of a legislator a far greater offense than the violation of the oath he takes when becoming a legislator. Drunkenness, it holds, is disgusting, but hypocrisy is intolerable.

If we are right in getting the position of this Washington paper, a wet legislator can take advantage of the special privilege accorded him as a legislator, violate the prohibition amendment, get drunk and appear in the halls of congress in a drunken condition, thus disgracing not only his country, but himself and his constituents as well, and yet not be intolerable. It is only when such an offender against law and decency is guilty also of hypocrisy that he offends beyond the pale of its forbearance and is to be written up.

If members of the senate and house have been appearing in the condition represented, their cases are indefensible whether they be wet or dry, and if they thus offend in the future and are to be written up, they should be given publicity regardless of their attitude toward prohibition.

This Washington paper would overlook the theft of a horse, but would crucify the thief should he at the same time steal a halter.

What Others Say

THE BAUMES LAWS

Figures just compiled by the police commissioner of New York city relative to crime in the metropolis in 1927 constitute unmistakable evidence of the efficacy of the Baumes laws, which were operative throughout the year. Murders of citizens resulting from robberies decreased 58 per cent as compared with 1926. Murders of police decreased 44 per cent. Murder and manslaughter cases during the year totaled 278, compared with 289 the year previous. Assault and robbery cases totaled 951, in comparison with 1,173. There was a decrease of 69 per cent in hold-ups, involving more than $10,000 and 52 per cent in those between $1,000 and $10,000. Pay roll hold-ups decreased 64 per cent. In only one class of crimes was there an increase, burglaries advanced from 3,371 in 1926 to 3,380 in 1927, and this increase was attributed to sneak thieves engaged in daylight robberies.

The Baumes laws, which were enacted about 18 months ago, constituting a new criminal code for the state of New York, increased the penalties for various classes of crimes, and especially for repeated breaches of the law. They somewhat simplified the procedure in the trial of such cases and made evasion of penalties more difficult than before. At first the criminal classes did not take the new enactments seriously, but they soon learned that the new law had "teeth" in them, and after a few sentences of life imprisonment for third offenses were imposed, it became evident to the chronic criminals that it was dangerous to continue the practice of lawlessness as a means of making a living.

There is need of further reform. The court procedure remains too complex and offers dangerous opportunities for delay and evasion. Shorter cuts to justice are required. The "fence" problem has not been solved. The evil of professional bandits with crime directors through attorneys who are no less than the legal agents of professional lawbreakers is still to be abated. Efforts to reach a solution of these problems are now being made in further studies by committees of the legislature at Albany, and new enactments are likely to be made at the present session.

Other states than New York are watching the course of events in that jurisdiction, and moves toward the enactment of similar statutes are being made. The annual report of the police commissioner, showing a marked decrease in crime, will greatly stimulate these endeavors—Washington Star.

WISCONSIN CATCHES STEP
Wisconsin has presented a peculiar problem in party politics for the last 20 years. Within recent days it has shown some symptoms of returning to normal.

Following the primary in Wisconsin week before last, it required pretty much all the time since for the situation to so settle and clarify as to be fully intelligible. It now appears that those who may be called regular Republicans have made appreciable gains over La Follette.

Wisconsin Republicans for years past have presented the strange spectacle of being nominally within the national party and yet in every practical and even theoretical sense being a third, or as it might be said, a state party unto themselves. So contradictory has this position been that it is not at all surprising that there is a growing sentiment with Republicans of the state to once more catch step with the party at large.

Wisconsin Republicanism for long years centered around the personality of the older La Follette. The present Senator La Follette appears quite a forceful young man, but it is increasingly apparent that he can not permanently wield a power equal to that of his father.

Considerable advancement of a liberal nature may be credited to Wisconsin in recent years, but in attaining her advances Wisconsin has seemed to assume the position of a little principality set down in an alien country. Wisconsin has long been considered the "odd sheep" in the flock of states. The influence of Wisconsin Republicans in the national party has fallen nearly to zero. Little wonder there is support for those who would catch step again—Lansing Journal.

LIFE SENTENCES

That the trustees of the Indiana state prison refused to recommend clemency at this time for 18 of 21 life term prisoners who sought release may be regarded as a hopeful sign. For the last few years, when a man was sentenced to prison for life, everybody began to figure on how soon he would be released. Nobody felt that the sentence would be served. More recently the trustees of the state prison are giving not only the public but the prisoners to understand that a sentence may mean what it says. The usual plea for clemency is that the state should take into consideration the prisoner's family. Sometimes a prisoner's wife and children are destitute and become objects of charity. Everybody sympathizes with them, but sympathy should not stop with the prisoner's family. In cases of killings it is well to think of the feelings of those who were related by blood or marriage to the victim and to the effect on society that releases of killers may have. Society would abolish prisons and reformatories if it could, but when the matter of sympathy and consideration comes to the fore, it is pertinent to remember that a prisoner is punished for his acts. He made the choice between right and wrong and it is the duty of the state to make him suffer the consequences—Indianapolis News.

It is a favorable time for renewing contracts, signing documents and furthering all publishing, promotion and literary activities, for making changes of secondary importance. Social, domestic, affectional matters or things pertaining to the purely feminine may cause anxiety or be complicated.

Those whose birthday it is may expect a lively and successful year, with some minor changes. It is fortunate for making contracts and for promotion, but purely personal matters may be complicated and cause anxiety.

A child born on this day should be sensible and talented, possibly an original wave in science, invention or literature. It may be of fond change.

STRANGE AILMENTS COMMON TO GIRLS

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D.

United States Senator from New York, Former Commissioner

Health, New York City

Young girls have a critical period to face from about the time they enter high school until they are 18 years of age. During this time they may lose their rosy cheeks and become white almost wax in complexion. Sometimes the skin is greenish in color. There may be no emaciation or loss of plumpness, but the general appearance of the skin is far from normal.

On the slightest exertion there is loss of breath and inability to proceed with any physical task. Palpitation of the heart and frequent fainting spells are other disturbing symptoms. The power of the red blood cells to materially lessened. This leads to the heart disturbances.

There may be the most remarkable perversion of appetite. It is not uncommon for girls to like pickles, but the girls I am discussing eat chalk, lead pencils and all sorts of indigestible and harmful things.

The heart disturbances mentioned may become so serious that "murmurs" develop. On this account and because of the general weakness, there is no ambition and indeed no strength to do any kind of work.

Dyspepsia, constipation and some times ulcers of the stomach may develop. The muscular weakness naturally affects the muscles of the stomach and intestines and digestive troubles follow as a matter of course.

There are marked changes in the composition of the blood. The red blood cells are decreased in number and size and they fail to carry the vital red substance. This lowers the normal function of the blood.

All these symptoms and conditions make up a disorder which is called "Chlorosis." It comes from a Greek word meaning green, and the name is well given to this condition, which has been called the "green sickness."

Worry, overwork, either physical or mental, lack of food and bad hygiene are the chief causes. Exposure to wet or cold may mark the beginning of the trouble. When girls learn the importance of warm and dry feet they will escape many ailments.

The disease is more common among city girls than in the country.

Overcrowding, bad lighting and stair climbing appear to influence its development. Girls who go from the country with its freedom to the city with its confinements, are apt to suffer from chlorosis.

In the treatment, relaxation, mental freedom from care and responsibility come first. Nutritious food, gentle exercise, fresh air day and night, sunshine and baths will do wonders. The simple, hygienic life is the secret of cure.

The complications should be given general and remedial treatment with care and observance of the physician's orders. Complete cure should be had in a few months.

Answers to Health Queries

D. Q.—Would putting clean clothing on a young baby every day have a tendency to take away its strength?

2.—Does an inward goitre return?

A.—No.

2.—It some instances it may.

A. R. Q.—I am troubled with frequent nose bleeds—usually occurring when in a warm room—this sometimes stops quickly, but at other times last perhaps half an hour. The nose feels clogged and when I sneeze the blood starts to come. What would you suggest?

A.—Have your nose examined—there may be some obstruction or growth causing your trouble or the symptom may be merely due to a catarrhal condition. Keep the nasal passage clear by using a cleansing spray. For further particulars send a self addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

11 CLASSES OF OHIO STATE TO RETURN JUNE 9

Columbus, May 10.—Formal reunions of 11 classes here June 9 on "Alumni Day" at Ohio State university will center around that of the class of '78, the first to be graduated from the university. The class is also the first here to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of its graduation.

Five of the six members of the class are still living. They have been invited by President G. W. Rightmire to be his guests at luncheon on "Alumni Day."

Two groups of four classes each that were in the university at the same time also are scheduled for reunions. They are those of '86, '87, '88 and '89, and those of '05, '06, '07 and '08. Others which will hold formal reunions are the "Quarter Century Class," which this year is '03, and the "Quinquennial Class," which this year is '23.

Plan for the golden anniversary reunion of the class of '78 are being completed here at the offices of the Ohio State University association, the national alumni body. The association is also cooperating with officers of the other classes in arranging their plans.

WORLD ACCORD LUNCHEON HELD AT PEACE MEET

Japan's Minister Speaks; Canadian Envoy Cites Concord with U. S.

Cleveland, May 10. — A world friendship luncheon was to feature today's program of the American Peace Society Centennial convention to be held under the auspices of Women's Patriotic and Social Organizations.

Tsunao Matsudaira, Japan's minister to the United States; L. Astrom Finland's minister to this country and Justice Alexis De Boer, representing Hungary, were to be the principal speakers.

Tonight the eight general assembly of the Peace Conference will be held at the Public Auditorium when many prominent foreign statesmen will address the audience.

Vincent Massey, Canadian minister to Washington, at last night's session of the convention cited the "concord that exists and has existed for more than a century between the United States and Canada as the ideal peace."

"This friendship, which has existed for more than a century between the United States and Canada," Massey told his hearers, "across 4,000 miles of boundary line unmarked by a single fort or a single gun, points the way to peace among all nations."

Massey told how this peace between the friendly neighbors is governed by an international joint commission which has never yet been disobeyed.

Accused of Timidity
Last night's meeting was the first since the present conference began which has not been interrupted by Heckling. Dr. Jesse Holmes, professor of philosophy at Swarthmore college, in a speech yesterday, accused peace delegates of timidity. Referring to Tuesday night's outbreak when several persons were arrested by police for heckling speakers, Dr. Holmes said: "I notice some of the speakers here said they were not militarists, and then in the next breath added that they weren't pacifists, either. Well I am a pacifist. I am opposed to wars and war-making and I make no exception whatever of the so-called war of self defense."

Referring to communism in America, Dr. Holmes added: "The thing for you to do is to invite the spokesmen for communists and get your friends to come and hear. But—if you shut him up a lot of people will think he is right. Let him talk and they will know he is not."

Other speakers Wednesday night included Don Orestes Ferrara, Cuba's ambassador to the United States, who brought greetings of the recent Pan-American conference at Havana; Dr. Elizabeth Wallace of the University of Chicago and Arch C. Klumph, past president of Rotary International.

One of the interesting items on today's program was to be a tea at the Cleveland Museum of Art where numerous foreign ambassadors and representatives were to appear in native costume.

On June 13 the members will meet with Mrs. Kidd in Damascus.

Benefit Card Party
The Ladies' auxiliary No. 8, Patriarchs Militant, gave a lovely benefit card party Wednesday evening at the hall, Broadway, which interested about 180 people. Some of the guests were from Columbiana, East Palestine, New Waterford, Lisbon and Damascus.

The games favored were "500," euchre and bridge and a lunch was served.

Mrs. H. S. Naylor, of Beloit, spent Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. N. A. Lewis, Jennings ave.

CONFESSION OF HERRON IS READ

New Philadelphia, May 10.—The confession of William Herron on trial for the murder of his sister-in-law, Viola May, last February, was today introduced in court by the state over objections of defense attorneys.

Herron's confession, alleged to have been made to Sheriff Abe Laird of Tuscarawas county, and witnessed by Dr. Paul J. Alfbaugh, jail physician admitted that he had choked Miss May during an argument over his attentions to her on a night automobile ride.

Philadelphia, May 10.—The three members of the trans-Atlantic plane Bremen crew took off here today in their monoplane F-13 shortly after 9 o'clock for Cleveland on the second leg of their American tour. The plane got away without mishap and heading northwest as Baron Von Huenefeld, Captain Hermann Koehl and Major James Fitzmaurice waved farewell to the small crowd that had gathered at the Philadelphia navy yards airport to see them off.

Wives Go To Chicago
New York, May 10.—Mrs. Elfreda Koehl and Mrs. Violet Fitzmaurice wives of the pilot and the navigator of the Bremen, leave for Chicago today.

Mrs. Koehl plans to visit relatives in that city and Mrs. Fitzmaurice is to make the trip to keep her company. Patricia Fitzmaurice is to remain in New York.

SOCIETY

Marriage Licenses
A marriage license has been issued to Edward Duncan of Cleveland, a night watchman, and formerly residing at Salineville and Cora Branam, a divorcee, also residing at Salineville, but formerly at Jackson, W. Va.

Jesse W. Lipp and Ruth E. French, both residing at East Palestine have obtained a marriage license. They were married at Lisbon by Rev. J. M. Cameron of the United Presbyterian church.

Joseph W. Curran and Emily May Grimm, a widow, both residing at East Liverpool have secured a marriage license, and are to be married at East Liverpool by Rev. Walsh. Mrs. Grimm is a native of England.

Paul Gorman and Mildred Daniels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Daniels, both living in Salem, after obtaining a marriage license returned to Salem and were to be married by Dr. P. H. Gordon.

Methodist Women
The annual election of officers claimed attention at the fourth quarterly meeting of the Women's organization of the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at the church, with Circle 1 presiding.

The officers re-elected are: President, Mrs. Mary E. Pine; vice-president, Mrs. R. E. Smucker; secretary, Mrs. Charles Cornwall; treasurer, Mrs. J. E. McNeelan.

Mrs. William Taylor is flower superintendent. The financial report from the circles, which compose the organization, was excellent. Several hundred calls have been made during the quarter and a large number of bouquets sent to the sick and shut-ins, also letters and cards.

Mrs. C. T. Kirkbride had the devotionals and there numbers composed the program: Two vocal duets, Mrs. R. L. Smith and Mrs. W. T. Shoup; two readings, Mrs. Lee Lanpher; poem, Child's prayer, Little Audrey Simpson. Delicious refreshments were served by Circle 1.

Junior Music Club
Ruth Moff read a paper on Victor Herbert, composer, at a meeting of the Junior Music club Wednesday evening at the home of Anna Zelle, Newgarden st.

Piano solos were contributed by Mary Margaret McKee and Grace Dyball. The session was concluded with a social period with games and lunch pleasures.

In two weeks the members will meet with Mina Greenisen, Depot road.

Homemakers' Club

Miscellaneous quotations were given at roll call at a meeting of the Homemakers' club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. E. Christopher, Depot rd.

The meeting opened with a song and select readings were given by these women, Mrs. Charles Hoopes, Mrs. Frank Eddy, Mrs. Mary Hoopes and Mrs. Frank Pults. The hostess served a lunch. The June meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Milton Crawford, Winona rd.

Star Club
Mrs. Carlisle Diehl of Salem, and Mrs. Albert Kidd, of Damascus, were included in the guest list when Miss Ella Kidd entertained the Star club members Tuesday afternoon at her home, Benton rd. The members were interested in fancywork while they visited and at the conclusion of the social period a two-course lunch was served. The June meeting will be with Mrs. Herbert Lora, Benton rd.

Hostess to Club
Club associates of Mrs. John Hopkins met Wednesday evening at her home, McKinley ave., and enjoyed the hours at bridge with two tables engaged.

When the scores were counted the honors were awarded Mrs. Maude Wunderlin. A lunch was a concluding pleasure. Mrs. Russell Burns was an invited guest. A meeting in two weeks will be with Mrs. S. J. Davison, East Seventh st.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Kille of Rockton, N. J., are visiting at the home of E. I. Kille, Cleveland ave. They were accompanied here by Charles Kille, son of Mrs. Arlene Kille, who spent the winter in Rockton.

TRADE BOARD

likely to suffer as the guilty; and the guilty are as likely to go free as the innocent."

Humphreys said that the condition is a temporary epidemic and will largely pass with the election.

Hits at Politics
Opposition to any investigation by the trade commission except those based upon an alleged violation of the law was voiced by Humphreys. Where the commission is directed to make an investigation by the president of congress, the findings should not be controlled by what the political effect may be, Humphreys asserted, adding that "the responsibility of such investigations rests upon those who initiate them."

"Some of these investigations have been of great benefit to the public and some have done great harm," Humphreys said. "It is one of the highest duties of the government to protect honest business from unauthorized investigation, meddling and sniping of its own agents."

Probes An Injustice
Humphreys said that "it is wrong and unjustifiable for the trade commission to put any American citizen, who is not accused of violating the law, to the annoyance, expense, discredit, injury and injustice of an investigation."

Apparently referring to "economic investigations" made by the commission, Humphreys said:

"To say that it is in the interest of the public to spend money for the purpose of making an investigation of industrial corporations for the sole purpose of telling them how to run their business economically, is the ultimate egotistical ignorance."

Charges that the president has "packed" the trade commission for political purposes were characterized as baseless falsehoods from "dolled boys of slander." He said the commission "is no publicity bureau to spread socialist propaganda," and that its decisions are not based on political considerations.

a proposition was an attempted barter of the West Virginia delegation, and was, in effect, nothing more or less than attempted moral bribery."

Goff declined to name the senator who approached him, but asserted that "I shall certainly tell if the committee asks me."

Growing Bitterness
This flare-up was taken today as but one indication of the growing bitterness between the Hoover camp and the alliance of favorite sons, who are friendly to Lowden or Dawes in the fight for the Republican nomination.

Heartened and encouraged by the result in Indiana, where Hoover suffered the first real defeat of the current primary season, the coalition against him has returned to the battle with renewed hope. They confidently believe they have enough votes in sight to "stop" the cabinet candidate at Kansas City, with Lowden as the rallying post for all the anti-Hoover sentiment in the convention.

Whether they have or not remains to be seen. The Hoover managers deride the claims of "the allies" and claim that the Hoover movement has attained too much momentum to be halted by such temporary setbacks as the Indiana result.

Impartial tabulators figure that Hoover will enter the convention with nearly 400 votes on the first and second ballots, not counting the powerful New York and Pennsylvania delegations which between them have 169 votes. A majority of the convention necessary to nominate is 545. It is fairly evident, therefore, that if New York and Pennsylvania leaders swing to Hoover the efforts of the favorite sons and Lowden-Dawes leaders will be in vain.

CHINA FACTIONS MOVE TO UNITE TO FIGHT JAPS

Concerted Movement Said To Be On Foot; Consul Unhurt At Tsinan

Tokio, May 10. — A concerted movement is on foot in China to unite the hostile factions for war against Japan, the war office was informed today. Following the issuance of a manifesto by Marshal Chang Tso Lin, dictator of the Peking government, announcing cessation of hostilities against the Nationalists, it was learned that Chang is urging the southern "Nationalist" leaders to unite with his northern armies "to repulse the common foe."

Americans Under Fire

London, May 10.—United States Vice Consul Ernest B. Price and other Americans were under fire at Tsinan during the battle between Japanese and Chinese troops, but all escaped without injury, according to advices received today from Tsinan. In order to reach the railroad station to flee the city upon a train provided by the Japanese the Americans had to pass through a zone over which light artillery shells and machine gun bullets were flying.

The Chinese Nationalists claim that more than 500 Chinese were killed in the Japanese bombardment that followed the refusal of the Chinese to accept the Japanese ultimatum at Tsinan.

It is reported that desolatory firing is still in progress although the main force of Chinese soldiers had moved northward from Tsinan. There is considerable curiosity in official circles to ascertain the reception the Nationalists give to Marshal Chang Tso Lin's statement that the north has ceased warfare against south China.

Tells of Atrocities
Washington, May 10.—Charges of brutal atrocities and slaying of women and children by Japanese troops in Tsinanfu, violation of international law, and a purpose to obstruct the national reunification of China, were made today by Frank W. Lee, Chinese Nationalist representative in the United States. Lee made public a cablegram he received from the central executive committee of the Nationalist party. "The Nationalist party of the Republic of China," the message said in part, "wishes to draw the tures they have incurred. I personally do not know."

"Have you done anything about your candidacy in other states?" Steiwer asked.

"I have not done a thing—even in New York City," the governor replied.

Made No Promises
Governor Smith told Senator Steiwer he had made no effort toward securing the Democratic presidential nomination and was unaware of organizations in various states in his behalf.

"What have you done about contesting delegates for the Houston convention?" Senator Steiwer asked.

"I haven't any plans about the Houston convention," replied the governor. "I don't know even whether I am going to Houston."

"Are you contributing any money yourself to your presidential campaign?"

"Nope," answered the governor. "Have you made any promises of patronage in connection with your campaign?"

"Nope."

Markets

PRICES HIGHER

New York, May 10.—Slightly higher prices were quoted for stocks in all departments at the opening of the market today. The oils were active and firm, with Standard Oil of New Jersey up $\frac{1}{2}$ at 45 $\frac{1}{2}$; Phillips Petroleum up $\frac{1}{2}$ at 42; Standard Oil of New York up $\frac{1}{2}$ at 38 $\frac{1}{2}$; and Standard Oil of California up $\frac{1}{2}$ at 61 $\frac{1}{2}$. Radio Corporation recrossed the 200-mark, selling up 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ at 200 $\frac{1}{2}$. Copper motor and specialty stocks were steady, and the rails generally were firm. Chesapeake and Ohio rose $\frac{1}{2}$ to 202 $\frac{1}{2}$; Northern Pacific advanced $\frac{1}{2}$ to 102 $\frac{1}{2}$; New York Central up $\frac{1}{2}$ to 190 $\frac{1}{2}$; and reading up $\frac{1}{2}$ to 119 $\frac{1}{2}$.

Industrial stocks at the beginning of trading today showed the usual effects of uncertainty over brokers' loans and the bank rediscount rate. Price movements of the speculative leaders were irregular and confused, with the exception of the investment rails, which were inclined to continue yesterday's upward movement. The oils and public utility stocks were also firm.

The usual Thursday speculations over the prospects of an increase in the bank rate occupied the attention of a good part of the Wall street district. The call loan rate was unchanged at 6 per cent, but funds were available at 5 to 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent in the outside market.

Electric auto lights was a brilliant bullish leader in the automobile accessories, the stock registering a new high at 219, on merger reports. This is a gain of 5 points for the day and more than 100 points for the movement. Stewart Warner Speedometer sold around 100 in an active market, and the bulk of the tire and rubber stocks were firm.

New York Central dominated the investment rails, selling at the highest price in the history of the road. Reading, Lehigh Valley and Atchafson were active and firm. General Electric and General Motors were compelled to absorb heavy profit-taking, which however, was well absorbed. The Standard Oils and a few of the independents rose in the face of a new cut in gasoline prices. Radio was under selling pressure and declined 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ points to 197.

INDICT WOMAN FOR STABBING

Canton, May 10.—Mrs. Goldie Vargo, 22, Alliance, has been indicted for first degree murder by a Stark county grand jury in connection with the death of Mrs. Bernice Hutch, 20, Alliance, who she is charged with stabbing last month. The indictment is the first for first degree murder returned here since the Don R. Mellet investigations.

Rev. R. A. C. Pooley, vicar of the lonely island of Tristan da Cunha, in the South Atlantic, has appealed to Great Britain that a British warship be sent to the island at least once a year with provisions for the islanders, who are the world's poorest men. He had three weddings recently, at which he had to play the piano in the pulpit, as the organ had developed asthma.

READY FOR PARIS-NEW YORK HOP

The latest candidate for a westward flight over the Atlantic is Captain Guillaud, French naval aviator, who plans a non-stop flight from Paris to New York. Guillaud and two passengers, Admiral Frochet and Monsieur De Couville, who accompanied him on his last test flight, are shown in front of the plane.

ROCKEFELLERS AFTER CONTROL

Leaders See That In The Letter of J. D. Jr. To Colonel Stewart

New York, May 10.—The demand of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., that Col. R. W. Stewart resign from his post as chairman of the board of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, was viewed by financial leaders in Wall street today as the first move by the Rockefellers in a campaign to regain the position of leadership in companies formerly dominated by them. In a statement issued here Rockefeller requested Col. Stewart's resignation because of his recent testimony before the senate public lands committee in the Teapot Dome inquiry. The oil magnate declared he "had lost confidence in Col. Stewart's leadership." The request for the resignation was based on Stewart's admission to the Teapot Dome committee that he had shared in the Continental Trading Company's fund to the extent of $750,000.

Walsh Approves

Washington, May 10.—John D. Rockefeller's demand for the resignation of Col. Robert W. Stewart as chairman of the board of the Standard Oil company of Indiana was hailed with approval today by members of the senate oil investigating committee.

"It may be regarded," said Senator Walsh (D., of Montana), the Teapot Dome prosecutor, "as gratifying evidence that the business world is awakening to the gravity of the offenses revealed by the investigations. If the public conscience had been aroused earlier by expressions and actions such as Mr. Rockefeller's, the outcome of the criminal prosecution might have been different."

"Let us hope that Standard stockholders find the attitude of Mr. Rockefeller contagious," said Senator Gerald P. Nye (R., of North Dakota), chairman of the committee which exposed the Continental Trading company's Liberty Bond "slush fund." "If the investigation has been a tonic to the oil business, such as to cause the stockholders to insist upon a house-cleaning and demand honest business men and honest officials, the investigation has been well worth while."

Romans Had Central Heating Plant More Than 2,000 Years Ago

Vienna, May 10.—Central heating, which was regarded until now by our proud contemporaries as an achievement of modern times, was known to the Romans 2,000 years ago, according to Dr. Michael Hainich, son of the Austrian president. He found the vestiges of a Roman fort as a result of excavation carried out under his supervision near Linz, the capital of Upper Austria. The Roman remains, which have been unearthed, include hitherto undiscovered parts of the Roman castle of Lenta, on the site of which the town of Linz was built some centuries after the Roman Legions left Austria. In one section of the castle was found an underground heating chamber similar to that found in modern houses with central heating systems today. Other finds include an old forge, weapons and tools, casts of the bricks from which the walls were made and pottery molds supplied from Central Gaul.

MOTHERS GUESTS OF BOY SCOUTS AT K. OF C. HALL

In observance of Mothers' day and that the mothers of the boys might become better acquainted, K. of C. troop, Boy Scouts, had an enjoyable mothers and sons party Wednesday evening at the K. of C. hall, Broadway, with an attendance of about 40. After the singing of "America" each boy and his mother was introduced by Stephen Gonda, the scoutmaster. Hunter Carpenter had charge of the program, which was composed of these numbers: Talk, Rev. A. J. Manning; demonstration of first aid and rescue from live wires by Silver Fox and Flying Eagle; patrol; recitation, James Alaback; demonstration of carriers by Bull and Flying Arrow; remarks by Lawrence Reasbeck, grand knight of the Knights of Columbus; Scout skip, Jerome Kaiser; and Edward McCloskey; recitation, Carl Kermiet; songs by Stephen Gonda, remarks by John McNichol, chairman of the troop. At the close the Scout oath and laws were repeated and the mothers were given three cheers.

Refreshments were served and a cotillion was a diversion. The affair proved one of the most successful the troop has given.

Baptist Troop Plans

Boy Scouts of Troop Five, sponsored by the First Baptist church, will hold its first Mother and son meeting Friday evening at the Baptist church. Each member of the troop is to bring his mother.

Rev. George Keister, pastor of the English Lutheran church will be the speaker. Scout acts, games, songs and a musical program will be furnished as entertainment.

Iowa Explains Its Surplus of Widows; Count Few Murders

Des Moines, Iowa, May 10.—Although there are twice as many widows in Iowa as widowers, there is no occasion for husbands to shudder and fear an untimely end at the hands of their better halves, because the great difference is not brought about in this state through "shooting wives." Or at least Dr. Henry Albert, state health commissioner, says that isn't the reason.

"The reasons widows outnumber widowers are all natural ones," Dr. Albert said. "We don't have many cases out here where the wives are handy with guns. The fact hasn't extended this far yet."

Included in Dr. Albert's reasons for the presence in the state of 81,133 widows as against 39,608 widowers is the fact that most men marry women who are younger and therefore, it is natural for them, under the law of averages, to die earlier.

"Then, too, we must consider the fact that thousands of men are employed at dangerous work and that many are killed at their work," the health commissioner said. "There is very little danger of a housewife meeting death while running the vacuum sweeper or opening a can of beans, but her husband, who works in a mill or a manufacturing plant, may be more or less in constant danger.

"Then, too, there is the danger of traffic accidents. The husband ordinarily makes many more trips away from his home than does his wife and is therefore more often in danger of being run down than she."

These are the more important items listed by Dr. Albert as causes for the higher rates of widowhood.

SHOES FOR THE FAMILY

Today's Fashion

By Vera Winston

Street Dress of Gray Crepe-Satin.

A CREPE-SATIN street dress features interesting diagonal lines on its blouse body. Most different is the treatment accorded the moded neckline point which has been raised considerably to overlap the lengthened blouse yoke. A belt with interesting elongated tie-treatment bands the waistline. A circular skirt is employed in front.

Worn with it is one of the new necklaces with flattened metal triangles—alternating black and gold—cycling from a thin chain.

LEETONIA

The Kiwanis club held its weekly meeting in the Methodist parish house. The Busy Bee society served the dinner.

The program for the evening was conducted by a group of men from New Castle, Pa.

John Carol, a former Leetonia resident, being employed by the Erie railroad while here, was with the visitors and introduced the men who furnished the program.

At the present time Mr. Carol is chairman of the public affairs committee of New Castle.

Samuel Lewis, a fine tenor singer, gave a group of songs which were much appreciated by the company.

Mrs. B. J. Mullen entertained on Sunday at her home, 119 Summit st., in honor of Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Henderson, who makes their home with Mrs. Mullen and Dr. and Mrs. J. M. King of Pittsburgh. Both couples being recently married.

The affair was also in the nature of a home coming.

The guest list included Dr. E. J. Kelley, Miss Anderson, Elmer Nelson, Miss Spencer of Jamestown, N. Y.; Dr. and Mrs. C. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Foot of West Middlesex, Pa.; W. L. COURT NEWS

Would Be Citizen
Sabatino Dattilio, 40, residing at 193 Main st. Leetonia, a native of Italy, has filed his declaration of intent with Clerk of Courts Frank Ballantine, to become a citizen of the United States. He arrived at New York April 25, 1906.

Aks Judgment Vacated
The Standard Porcelain Co., of Leetonia, through its counsel Hill & Davidson of East Liverpool has filed a petition in common pleas court to vacate a judgment for $500 obtained against it by J. H. Coleman Dec. 27, 1927, on a cognovit note.

Named Receiver
E. J. Piero of Lisbon has been appointed receiver by Judge W. F. Lones for Harry Crubaugh, formerly of Lisbon, and who was doing business under the name of the Crubaugh-Chevrolet Co. The appointment followed the recent filing in common pleas court an action against Crubaugh by John Konecheck.

Five attorneys have been listed in this case, and the court action followed after Konecheck deposited funds in The Peoples State bank at Lisbon as trustee, to be paid over to Crubaugh for his business when a clear bill of sale for the business was turned over, Konecheck, however, at the time he made a nominal cash payment to Crubaugh assumed the management of the business.

Soon afterwards, however, other judgments were entered against Crubaugh and he left Lisbon, his present whereabouts being unknown.

The court has ordered Receiver Piero to post $10,000 bond, with sureties satisfying Clerk of Courts Frank Ballantine.

Latin Flashes Another

71, Taking Play From American Stars

Sandwich, Eng., May 10.—Jesse Jurado, the unknown of last week, became the man of the hour today when he led a great field, including Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazen and Bill Mehlhorn, home in the second round of the British open golf championship.

Jurado's distinction became official when Sarazen came in late with a 37-39-76 which tied Hagen for second position at 148 strokes.

If there was any further glory demanded of the situation, Jurado got it with his glittering 33 on the last nine holes today.

Sandwich, May 10.—Flashing another epic round of 71 Jose Jurado overnight sensation from the Argentine, took the play away from Bill Mehlhorn, Walter Hagen and the Americans in general by topping the more than half completed second round of the British open golf championship today with a 36-hole total of 145.

Hagen, replying with a fine 72 today, was in possession of second position at this point with an aggregate of 148.

Mehlhorn, blowing up like a premature blast, took 41 strokes on the last nine holes to score a 78 and tie with Archie Compston, arch-rival of Hagen, for third position at this juncture.

Tommy Armour, American champion, was definitely eliminated from further play in the tournament by his 80 of today which gave him an aggregate of 161, more than the forbidden 15 strokes behind the leader.

Jim Barnes retrieved his bad round of yesterday with a 73 today but he was well back from the pace at 154. Of the American Big Five, only Gene Sarazen was still to be heard from at this point.

THE LELAND WATCH SHOP

Always Appropriate!

White shirts are always appropriate—especially as excellent backgrounds for enhancing ensembles. What man ever had too many white shirts? Here are shirts in Oxford, Madras, and fine Broadcloths, made for us by Manhattan pioneers in the art of shirt-making. They're cut with an eye to fullness and comfort, as well as tailored for style.

Hot—But Cool!

In this day of locker rooms, underwear must be as smart as ties, socks, or shirts. Here are shirts and shorts in a class by themselves, as is everything made for men by Manhattan. The shirts fit snugly, yet are free about the neck and arms. The shorts are full and comfortable—we have them in a multitude of colorful combinations.

LAKE MILTON TO STAGE REGATTA

State-Sanctioned Races For Outboard Motors Memorial Day

Lake Milton, May 10.—Through the efforts of the officers of the Lake Milton Yacht club the first state sanctioned outboard speedboat regatta in Ohio will be held at Lake Milton May 30.

Much time and effort was spent by the club in securing the state association's sanction for this date and a great amount of the credit is due Commodore Merrell A. Wood, Purser David T. Wick, Earl E. Mulard and Jay L. Wick who acted as a committee to obtain the event here.

Buckeye Lake, Columbus, was a strong bidder for the project and the local club members are elated to find that Lake Milton was given the preference.

The fact that the Ohio Outboard association has sanctioned this meet gives the event a national scope, since the association is affiliated with the American Power Boat association, a strong racing organization in this country and the official head of all large regattas.

This will be the biggest spectacle ever planned at Lake Milton and will be the greatest water classic staged on an inland lake in Ohio. The Ohio Outboard association, composed of 300 members, is supporting the races and expects to open the season's activities here with a thrilling start.

At least 50 speedboats will participate, coming from all parts of Ohio and the best drivers in the game will be at the wheel. Speeds of 37 miles an hour have already been attained this year to date and with three more weeks of tuning up there should be a 40-mile-an-hour event Memorial Day.

ANNUAL PROBE OF PADDOCK ON

New York, May 10.—The amateur Athletic union has ordered an investigation into the amateur standing of Charley Paddock, the crack California sprinter who is expected to be one of America's heaviest point scorers in the coming Olympic games.

The A. A. U. will check Paddock's statement that he is receiving no remuneration for playing in motion pictures.

RICKARD AND FUGAZY ROW OVER TOMMY

New York, May 10.—The contest between Promoters Tex Rickard and Humbert Fugazy over the services of Tommy Loughran, light-heavyweight champion, threatened today to develop into a bitter legal battle.

Deserting Rickard, Loughran has signed with Fugazy to defend his title twice within two weeks, but Rickard claims to hold an option on Tommy's ring services until next November. Tex declares he will carry his fight into the courts. Loughran signed to fight Pete Latzo, former welterweight champion, in a 15-round bout at Ebbets field, Brooklyn, on May 30. He also promised Fugazy that if he beats Latzo he would take on Leo Lomski, the Aberdeen, Wash., assassin, in the same ring on June 13.

Rickard had lined up Jack Delaney, former light heavyweight champion, for a bout with Loughran at the Yankee stadium here in June.

YANKEES SET FASTER PACE THAN IN 1927

New York, May 10.—The New York Yankees have been setting a faster pace this season than during the early days of the 1927 American League race, despite the fact that they were out of first place for some time this spring.

The champions have won 15 of their first 20 games this season. In their first 20 starts last year, they won 12 games, lost seven and tied one.

Plenty of Time To Drink At Olympics

Amsterdam, May 10.—Visitors at the Olympic games in Amsterdam this year will not want for liquid refreshment. Ordinarily Amsterdam cafes and bars close at 1 a. m., but the town council, perhaps catering to visitors from "dry" countries, has decreed that they remain open an hour later while the games are in progress.

FIGHT RESULTS

At Fort Wayne, Ind.—Corporal Izzy Schwartz, recognized as flyweight champion in New York state, outpointed Happy Atherton, Indianapolis (10).

At Montreal—Kid Roy, Canadian featherweight champion, won from Vic Foley, Vancouver, on foul (6).

At Bradford Junction, N. Y.—Jimmy Slattery, Buffalo light-heavyweight, kayoed Stanley Smith, Sandusky, Ohio (2).

At Boston—Harold Mays, Bayonne, N. J., heavyweight, outpointed Matt Adgie, Philadelphia (10).

At Mitchell Field, N. Y.—Pete Hartley, outpointed Sig Keppen, Beaver Falls, Pa., welterweight (10).

Walsh Finds Dempsey Really Suffers From Condition Of His Eye

BY DAVID J. WALSH
New York, May 10.—Jack Dempsey really has faulty vision, brought about by the punches he received in the ring. He was leveling when he told the boys that defective eyesight was responsible for his self-confessed retirement. Later, upon his arrival in New York, he saw fit to laugh at the story. Let him laugh at this one:
Dempsey consulted a specialist here several weeks ago about the condition of his eyes. The writer knows this to be true because the fact was admitted today at the Manhattan Eye, Ear and Throat hospital where the examination took place. It merely was superficial diagnosis, as Dempsey was embroiled in the Kearns suit at the time and couldn't arrange sufficient appointments to undergo a course of treatment.

BARNES IN FORM AS GIANTS WIN

Blanks Pirates, 6 To 0, Cincinnati Troupes Boston, 4 To 1

New York, May 10.—The pennant prospects of the league-leading New York Giants were more replete today because of the brand of pitching flashed by the veteran Virgil Barnes in New York's 6 to 0 victory over Pittsburgh yesterday. Cohen and Hogan drove in four runs.

Cincinnati kept to the pace by trouncing Boston, 4 to 1.

A single by G. Zales gave Root of the Cubs a 2 to 1 verdict over McGewney of Brooklyn in a 12-inning mound duel.

The Cardinals trounced the Phils again, 7 to 1, and advanced to within a few points of the third-place Pirates Littlejohn, Indian twirler, toyed with the Quakers while the Red Birds made merry at the expense of two of their former pitchers, Ring and McGraw.

Inclement weather kept all the American league clubs idle.

ENTRIES CLOSE SATURDAY FOR MUSH BALL LOOP

Only four teams have entered the city playground baseball league definitely and four others have signified their intention of entering.

All teams proposing to enter should do so not later than Saturday, Joe Kelley states.

The four teams entered are Mullins, Postoffice, Elks and City Hall teams. Managers of the Eagles, Pottery, Deming and Methodist teams are requested to see Kelley, manager of the league immediately if they wish to enter, as a four-team schedule will be drawn Monday.

The next game in the league will be played Tuesday between the Elks and Postoffice.

Kelley hopes to have all shops, merchants, and churches represented in the league.

New York—John Phoenix is an ingenious German youth whom Uncle Sam is sending back to Dueseldorf. John nailed himself in a six by four packing case with saws, water and chocolate and shipped himself C. O. D. to a New York address. A customs inspector, curious because of a loose board in the case, discovered boxed John after he had been unloaded from a liner.

Berlin—"Such a foolish girl" is Lily Dillenz, actress, who essays to fly from Germany to the United States. Her father, who is in Vienna, called her that in a telephone conversation with a friend. "There are enough ships that go to America," he remarked, "so why on earth use an airplane?"

A New Record
for stock cars under $1400

Better than a mile a minute
for 5000 miles

The Dictator $1195 to $1395
F. O. B. FACTORY

By traveling 5,000 miles in 4,751 consecutive minutes, the Studebaker Dictator has established a record unequalled by any stock car under $1400—comparable to the existing world record of 5,000 miles in 4,559 minutes made by The Studebaker Commander last fall.

And not one, but two Dictator Roadsters, fully equipped, each traveled 5,000 miles in less than that number of minutes. The run was made at the Atlantic City Speedway, April 20-23, under the supervision of the Contest Board of the American Automobile Association. Before and after the run, the cars were checked by the Technical Committee and were pronounced strictly stock models.

CLAIMS vs. FACTS
Automobile advertising is full of extravagant claims of performance. But Studebaker offers you definite FACTS supported by the certificate of the highest motoring authority. Under A. A. A. supervision

The Commander has made a record never approached by any other car on earth (25,000 miles in less than 23,000 minutes). The Erskine and The Dictator have made records unequalled by any other stock cars at or near their prices.

The high quality of materials, the precision workmanship, the rigid inspections and the engineering genius in the Studebaker Dictator are proved not only by its ability to travel 5,000 miles in less than 4,800 consecutive minutes, but also by the fact that any Dictator can be driven 40 miles per hour as soon as it leaves the assembly line at the factory.

Backed by Studebaker's 76-year reputation for quality and value, The Dictator offers champion performance at a low One-Price price.

Values in Four Price Fields
President Eight, $1985 to $2485; The Commander, $1435 to $1625; The Dictator, $1195 to $1395; The Erskine Six, $795 to $965. All prices f. o. b. factory.

"UNDERWORLD"
"Underworld" an amazingly vivid and thrilling story written by Ben Hecht will be shown tonight at the Grand.
Briefly, the story recounts the violent adventures of a group of men and women of criminal instincts in a metropolitan American city. It shows gangland in its true colors. The characters have a distorted view point toward life but they possess human qualities, too, that actuate their desperate acts and color their loves, feuds and depredations. There is regeneration for only two of the characters, Clive Brook and Evelyn Brent, a man and a girl whose underworld associations have been brought about by strange circumstances and who finally find "the right way" through their love.
George Bancroft, as a gang leader, is a huge, roistering barbarian who lives by violence and dies the same way. Fred Kohler, a rival gangster, is a savage bandit, second only to Bancroft. The grimness of the picture is lightened by Larry Seamon's spontaneous humor.

The tale moves swiftly to a startling conclusion that would appear highly melodramatic were it not that one can read daily of furious gun battles between police and gangsters shooting it out to the death.
"NO PLACE TO GO"
A fine story, cast and production—that is the sum total of "No Place to Go" which is at the State. It is a First National Picture produced by Henry Hobart, directed by Mervyn LeRoy, and scenarized by Adelaide Heilbron from "Isles of Romance" a story published in the Saturday Evening Post and written by Richard Connell.
The cast is headed by that delightful "team," Mary Astor and Lloyd Hughes. In support are: Hal-lam Cooley, Myrtle Stedman, Virginia Lee Corbin, Jed Prouty, Russ Powell and others. An entire band of cannibals and many extra people portraying society folk of the younger set, add to the brilliancy of the production.
The story concerns the love affairs of a boy and a girl who finally go ashore on an island in the South Seas where they fall into the clutches of a band of cannibals. But the chief is a jovial chap and between the Victrola which the romance-seeking couple have brought along, and the girl's ability to dance the Black Bottom they are unharmed. Later they are rescued and after a serious quarrel, following their marriage, they are reconciled and all ends happily.

STYLE EDICTS
Paris, May 10.—Wooden—not tin—hats for women promise to be the most popular ones of the season judging from the great numbers of them appearing at the chic race meeting in Paris.
Made of three-ply wood, they are as light as a feather, and smart as any felt ones and will not develop dents and creases like the latter. They preserve the cloche shape and have brims cut in two fitted with springs hidden beneath the edging so that they are elastic and can be pulled down over the head.
The young French modiste who hit upon this novel hat idea spent a year in search of suitable woods and a skilled cabinet maker who could do the work. For the hats are not carved out of solid blocks, but composed of tiny irregular pieces of the most valuable and varied woods which fit into one another so that shade of each—ebony, cedar, rosewood, walnut and mahogany, blend into definite patterns.
The first one made was of sycamore wood cut in spiral strips which composed the brim and the crown and was tinted a soft grey shade. It is better to use natural woods which need only an occasional light polish to heighten the effects of the delicate colors.
The wooden hats are a bit costly but will last a lifetime which is their greatest defect—according to the ladies.
Newark, O.—William F. Dayton, 81, said to have been the oldest engineer of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad is dead. He had 54 years of continuous service. He piloted the fastest passenger trains of the B. & O. lines between Newark and Cincinnati for 30 years.

THE HOME KITCHEN
By Jeannette Young Norton
Buffet and Banquet Table Service
With Spring receptions and June weddings ahead, we should know all about correct ways of serving refreshments. There are many who prefer home service with the extras perhaps purchased outside. Trained waiters and professional cooks are to be had if needed.
A morning wedding between 10 and high noon calls for a breakfast, always a seated meal. The wise hostess limits the number to as many as she can serve comfortably. A large table and a few small ones are frequently set. The menu covers a fruit course, dainty fish course, sweetbreads, or broiled chicken or quab, peas and so on, a dainty salad, and an attractive dessert.
An early afternoon wedding calls for a buffet arrangement for refreshments. The table is covered with a cloth and has a flower arrangement or the wedding cake, if it is elaborately decorated, in the center. Candles may be used if the house lighting is insufficient. At either side of the table plates are stacked and beside them forks and napkins. The food may be two or more bowls of salad, four plates of sandwiches, with several dishes of chives, salted almonds, and at one end of the table a tureen of steaming hot bouillon to ladle into the cups piled beside it, with tiny finger rolls and a bowl of whipped cream to put a teaspoon on top of each serving. Ice cream and cake with coffee is served on trays after the guests have all been served with the solid foods.
Now for the banquet refreshments. A very large function is rarely attempted in a home without a caterer, but it can be done if the cook understands quantity service. This is the largest seated function. The table is laid the same as for the five-course-at-home dinner as to service. The service may be strictly individual service which is generally the case, or the elaborate dishes of each course may be passed and each guest help themselves. This is slower, but more attractive to many people.
If dishes and silver are not too plenty, then rapid dish washing must be arranged for so that fish plates may be ready for salad and entree plates for dessert. Forks and spoons must also be washed. If the banquet is served under a tent or on a large porch then liberties are taken and instead of the banquet white tablecloth, one with colored border is used, the flowers and candles matching the border.

Ellsworth Boy In Ohio State Society
Columbus, May 10.—Initiation of Ralph Winans, of Ellsworth into membership of Phi Eta Sigma, national freshmen honorary scholastic society, was held at Ohio State university, where he is enrolled as a student.
Winans was formerly a member of the Freshmen Honors society which was recently installed as a chapter of Phi Eta Sigma at the university.
Freshmen students at the university, having an average grade of 3.5 points or a perfect grade of four points, were made eligible for the fraternity. There are nearly 60 members of the organization at the present time.
Winans is enrolled in the College of Agriculture. He entered the university for the first time last fall.

A recent witness in an English court stated he was the father of 30 children, of whom 29 were girls.

WITHOUT this handicap, there returns the very natural confidence, joy and cherished pride of possessing a clear skin.
Men and women both justly covet admiration, and you can expect such satisfaction only if you are happy in a clear, unblemished skin.
The sure way to reach this state is through the blood.
Red blood cells are Nature's elements for building and sustaining the body.
Without plenty of rich, red blood, there can be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or beautiful, healthy women.
You know a clear skin comes from within. Correct the cause—through the blood—and pimples, boils, eczema and that sallow complexion will disappear.

ZOLLINGER'S IN CANTON

More and more, women are looking to style as their chief desire. They demand smartness before every other requisite, and a certain degree of individual distinction.
The modern woman is thrifty, though, and she wants to find style beauty at a budget price. In times past it was a slight against character to mention the fact that one wanted merchandise at as low a price as possible.
Now-a-days, however, it is smart to be thrifty, and women who find no need for being economical, are interested in budgets, and find pleasure in shopping for things at a price.
Zollinger's, a completely stocked department store, offers every advantage of style, quality, selection and low price. Shop at Zollinger's and save time and money.

OHIO ORATOR IS ON HIS WAY TO TROY ZONE TEST

Delbert Eugene Nixon, Buckeye Champ, Goes To East Today

TO SPEAK FRIDAY WITH 9 OTHERS

Seven States In Finals Of Oratorical Contest At Troy, N. Y.

Canton, O., May 10.—Delbert Eugene Nixon, 18-year-old Toronto high school senior, and all-Ohio oratorical champion, accompanied by an official of his school and a representative of the Brush-Moore Newspapers, left for Troy, N. Y., today to engage in a seven-state competition against 10 young men and women for the privilege of representing the northeast section of the United States in the National Oratorical contest.

The Troy contest is tomorrow evening.

Winner at Troy not only becomes a national oratorical finalist, but will be included in a party of eight high school students representative of the entire nation, which will be taken for an eleven weeks' tour of Europe this summer.

The National Oratorical Contest finals will be presented May 25 in Washington, D. C., where five of the seven judges of the United States supreme court will decide the competition. The national winner will represent the United States next October in Washington in the International Oratorical Contest, when representatives of seven foreign countries will compete.

Young Nixon displayed the same serene confidence today on the eve of his departure for Troy that was noticeable in Canton two weeks ago on the eve of the all-Ohio competition, which he won by virtually an unanimous decision of the three judges. He received two first place awards, and one third.

There will be ten young men and women competing at Troy. Massachusetts will have two and New York state three contenders, while the other states will have one each. The states to be represented, other than Massachusetts and New York, are Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Vermont and Maine. Identity of six of the ten competitors, forwarded to the Brush-Moore Newspapers, follows:

Delbert Eugene Nixon, Ohio; Harry Emmons Glass, Ottawa Hills high school, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Miss Roberta P. Powers, Morrisville, Vt.; Rosewell D. Kirby, Albion, N. Y.; Miss Alice Gibbs, Saratoga, N. Y.; Harry E. Welden, Richfield Springs, N. Y.; and Elizabeth Cecelia Siteman, Portland, Me.

Nixon's oration is based on "The Development of the Constitution. He has revised it to some extent, and has been laboring with its presentation since he won the all-Ohio contest here two weeks ago. It is Nixon's purpose, he said today, to be so letter perfect and to have the oration in hand so completely that it will be possible for him to deliver his very best efforts at Troy.

Arrangements have been made for presenting the Troy zone contest in Music Hall in that city, said to be one of the outstanding auditoriums in north-central New York. The orators and their companions will be quartered at the Hendrik Hudson hotel during their stay in Troy, where they will be guests of The Troy Record, sponsor of the competition in its home city.

Clara Phillips Once "Tiger Woman" Tamed and Cowed By Prison Term

By SHIRLEY KIRKE
International Illustrated News Staff Correspondent

FIVE long prison years have taken their toll of Clara Phillips, the California "hammer slayer."

The murderess who filled front pages as the "Tiger Woman" is a bent and grief-stricken picture of despair as she toils over her laundry tub in San Quentin prison.

She does not smile much now. The old tiger spirit that flared up even at visitors when she first entered the "one-way" prison portals is dead.

Prison years are longer than other years. They are weighted with gloom and charged with utter hopelessness. The snarling lips that formed bitter denunciations of the innocent passersby in the corridor outside the women's cells now appear lifeless as Clara Phillips turns her head from those who pass her laundry door.

"Why does any one want to see me?" she asks irritably of the matron. "They have hounded me long enough. I want to be let alone."

There is pathos in the trembling voice and deep lines are traced about the mouth. Dimmed eyes tell a story of weariness and defeat—eyes that once sparkled and flashed defiance to the world.

The tiger woman has been tamed. Her spirit is broken.

Only once has hope surged up in the heart of the woman who killed Alberta Meadows—hope that one day she, too, might see once more the full sweep of "that tent of blue that prisoners call the sky."

It rose to meet a message from her husband in Los Angeles.

"I will be waiting at the prison gates when Clara is freed, waiting to make a new home for her," said the man for whose love the "Tiger Woman" made her "kill."

"My husband's love for me, as he has demonstrated it since I have been in prison, is the only thing that is keeping me up. My cup of happiness would overflow if I could be released from this place and he and I resume our married life."

CLARA PHILLIPS

That was a year ago. Then Clara Phillips had not forgotten how to make herself beautiful. The waves of dark hair set closely to her head. A wisp of a curl trailed over her forehead.

It is not so now. Curls have no chance to stray from the closely cropped head that tops a figure shapeless in the prison apron.

Perhaps it is the work in the prison laundry that has made Clara Phillips look worn and peaked. But it is work she asked for—to give her something to do but listen to the naggings and bickerings of others—and perhaps to keep her mind from dwelling on dismal thoughts of a "tiger woman's" defeat.

are Bertha Calvin, Isabell Weikart, Pauline Crumbacher, Pauline Everson, Katharine Kenrich, Edna Lux, Ralph Moore, Myron Charlton and Charles Brightwell.

A student from Wittenberg college will deliver the address in the Lutheran church Sunday morning, May 13.

The different districts of the clothing and nutrition projects will put on their different stunts free during the lecture hour at the meeting of the farm bureau in grange hall on Monday night. Refreshments will be served to members of the projects and their families.

Vera Gibbs of Millville is taking care of Mrs. J. E. Landfried, who is bed fast on account of having her teeth extracted.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lake and daughter, Pauline Everson attended the 15th wedding anniversary of her son, B. R. Everson and wife at Alliance Sunday.

The Senior class play, "Beds on a String," was again given Wednesday night.

PSYCHOLOGIST RAPS HOKUM

Prof. Burtt Says Persons Infringe On Science With Modern Bunk

Columbus, May 10.—An infringement on the principles of the original psychology being made by persons who have only the slightest idea of what the study is concerned, is the charge made by Professor Harold E. Burtt, noted Ohio State university psychologist.

"There is a great deal of literature in circulation at the present time that tries to pass under the name of psychology, but it is all 'bunk' the Ohio State educator maintains. 'This 'heckum' tells of sure ways of obtaining a good memory or how to make a success in business, but it has no connection in any way whatever with the study of psychology today."

Psychology first started as an "arm-chair" practice and was later established on scientific principles that now have practical value if used in the right way, according to Professor Burtt.

Professor Burtt believes that a great amount of progress, however, has been made in the field in curing mental sickness, by conditioning and suggestion, rudiments of psychology.

"In recent years, law has found a place for psychology in the vein that simple principles determined in the psychological laboratory can be used to test the soundness of a witness' story," he declares. "By using certain apparatus familiar to the psychologist, it can be determined nine times out of ten when a person is testifying falsely."

While it is impossible to make a success in business by the use of psychology, the applied subject has been a great help to the business man, Professor Burtt believes. This line centers around the efficiency tests of applicants for certain positions, which seldom fail.

Chassis leader of the day supreme in Beauty too

The New Hudson's distinction in vogue is adding thousands of beauty lovers to the hosts who want its supremely brilliant performance. And all are delighted to find, with all its other economies, a gasoline saving never attained by a car of its weight and size. Any new Hudson owner will be proud to tell you all about this new advantage.

The consistency of Hudson leadership is but the performance of its first principle, resolution and tradition—to always lead in value.

Thus it was the first car at moderate price to give truly great performance, smoothness and reliability—the industry's standard today.

Thus it was the first in the development of American closed cars, and such smart turnouts as the Town Car and Speedster. The Coach—a Hudson invention—turned the entire industry to closed cars.

The Super-Six principle and its companion invention that turns waste heat to power, is the most efficient combination in development and transmission of power, within our knowledge.

MAINE LEADS IN POTATOES ROADS CARRY

Washington, May 10.—A study of the white potato industry and the relationship of prices to transportation costs, completed today by the Bureau of Railway Economics, showed that carload shipments of this commodity last year amounted to 251,211 cars, approximately 7,290 cars above the annual average for that year.

Of the 48 states, Maine shipped more white potatoes last year than any other, amounting to 41,751 cars or about 17 per cent of the United States total. The other principal potato producing states in the order of importance and number of carloads shipped in 1927 were: Minnesota, 31,394; Virginia, 23,650; Idaho, 16,934; Wisconsin, 15,685; Colorado, 15,313; New York, 12,535; Michigan, 10,525.

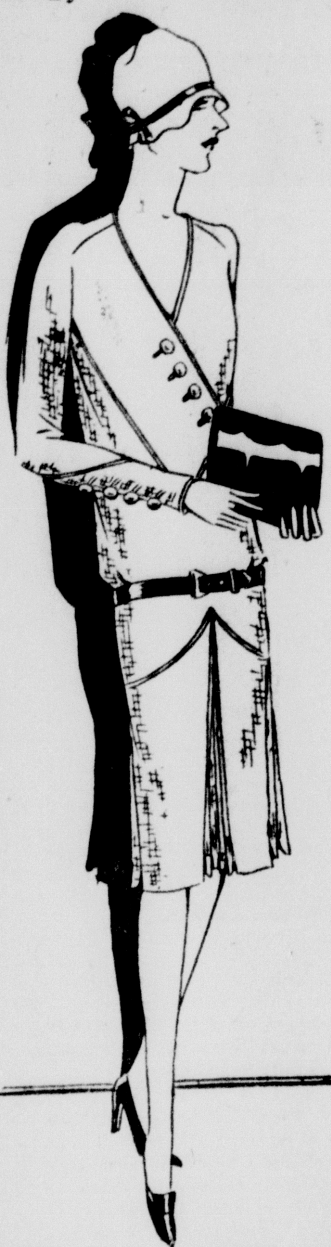

Connecticut was the only state in the union from which no carload shipment were made last year.

Distribution of the potato crop is widespread, the survey showed, several states making shipments to as many as 25 other states. Many of the larger markets received potatoes from 20 or more states. Detroit, for instance, received its potato supply from 27 states; Milwaukee 27; Cleveland 32; Chicago 36.

New York last year received more potatoes than any other city, rail shipments received there amounting to 21,822 cars. Chicago was second with 15,360 cars; Philadelphia, 7,736; Boston, 7,533; Los Angeles, 5,227.

Today's Fashion

By Vera Winston

Sport Dress of Pink Tweed.

PINK tweed provides the material for the sport dress pictured in the accompanying sketch in which saddled sleeves are fitted over a pointed blouse yoke. Four buttons appear here as on the sleeve. A patent leather belt occurs above a molded neckline and one cluster of pleats appears at the skirt front, making a completely attractive model.

Combined with it are black leather shoes and purse and a small pink felt turban banded with a narrow strip of cire ribbon.

Gentry Circus Will Stage Parade Here Monday Noon

Gentry Bros. circus, on its 41st trans-continental tour, will exhibit in Salem on Monday.

The program of the circus is new this year.

Chief among the aggregation of artists are the Hollis troupe, equestrians; the Milo trio, gymnasts; the Theobores family, daring Mexican equilibrists; the six Nevares, amazing riders; the Peerless Potters, acrobats; the Alvarado sisters, aerialists; and other acts.

One of the chief attractions of the Gentry circus, free to the public, is the street parade that passes through the downtown streets at noon. Several bands, two calliopes, tableau wagons, open dens of wild animals and other features are included in this spectacle.

Two performances will be given, at 2 and 3 p. m. The doors will open one hour earlier for each performance.

New York—The eagle on the silver quarter has his feet tucked up back, rather than forward, to show that he and the country he represents are not warlike and ready to pounce on weaker prey. And if A. Macnelli, who designed the coins, says no one has yet convinced him that flying eagles do not carry their feet trailing.

New York—Edwin Weiss, Jr., 10, is insured for $200,000. He's glad the insurance people think he won't die soon and guesses he won't play on the streets any more. His father, a stock exchange member, is insured for $2,000,000. The boy's insurance, split among nine companies, costs his father $3,080 a year.
